Description of the Qualifications

The Certificate III in Printing and Graphic Arts (Graphic Pre-Press) is suitable for trainees wishing to gain a broad and thorough knowledge of the Printing and Graphic Arts industry. The course provides the opportunity to develop pre-press skills in typography, design and layout, preparation of files for print, scanning images, image outputting, imposition and a range of current industry software applications. The Diploma of Multimedia provides trainees with skills and knowledge to work in many areas of multimedia design and production across the arts, entertainment, e-commerce and media industries. The Diploma course develops multimedia skills in graphic arts, web page development, 2D and 3D animation, screen design, multimedia authoring, scripting languages and advanced HTML. On completion of both courses trainees should have the skills to perform as a pre-press tradesperson or work as a member of a multimedia development team. For further information on the course content please refer to the course syllabus overleaf.

Work Experience

Cambridge International College gives the trainee the opportunity to undertake 900 hours of unpaid work experience in the Graphic Pre-Press field. (Additional fees apply)

Duration

The double award is delivered over 2 academic years and comprises four, 9 week terms per academic year. The study mode is full time, which consists of 20 teacher contact hours per week. Trainees have the option to study in a daytime or evening schedule subject to availability.

Entry Requirements

The entry requirements for these courses are the successful completion of Year 11 or the equivalent level of studies in the trainee's home country and a minimum English level of IELTS 5.5. Please note that the Certificate IV in Spoken and Written English at Cambridge International College has a direct pathway into all Certificate and Diploma course at Cambridge International College.
