

Facilities, Equipment & Learning Resources

An outline of the Facilities, Equipment and Learning Resources at Cambridge International College, Melbourne and Adelaide Campuses:

- Modern office-style environments in convenient central city locations
- Well equipped classrooms
- Data projectors
- Overhead projectors
- DVD players & televisions
- Computers which include languages other than English
- Computer labs and self-study centres
- Library resources
- Student common/recreation areas including kitchen areas
- Free access to internet and email

Melbourne Campus

Business Studies

- Computer lab with standard office applications, such as word processing and spreadsheet applications that support student assignments and student presentations
- Other materials developed by teaching staff through significant industry and teaching experience
- Access to digital cameras, DVD players and data projectors

Computer Studies

- In excess of 140 computers
- CD-Roms and DVD burners
- Digital cameras
- High quality digital video camera & studio equipment
- Wet & Dry light boxes
- Image scanners
- A3 scanner
- Macintosh G4 dedicated workstation for FT-S5000
- Laser imagesetter
- Densitometer - T120 & RT120
- Software includes: Quark Express, Director, Flash, Adobe Premier and Photoshop, Dreamweaver, Colourgenius scanning software plus driver, 3DS Max Studio, Carrara and Coreldraw
- Reference library, e.g. user manuals
- Other materials developed by teaching staff through significant industry and teaching experience

Community Welfare Studies

- Computer lab for in-class and self-study
- Access to welfare library resources
- Access to digital cameras & data projectors
- Other materials developed by teaching staff through significant industry and teaching experience

English Language Studies

- Self-Access centre & computer lab
- Tandberg records
- Listening comprehension cassette players
- Computer assisted learning materials
- English course books and materials

Adelaide Campus

Computer Studies & Community Welfare Studies

- Dedicated computer lab
- DVD players
- Materials developed by teaching staff through significant industry and teaching experience
- Access to free email and internet in student area

English Language Studies

- Access to a computer lab
- DVD players
- Listening comprehension cassette & CD players
- English course books and materials
- Access to free email and internet in student area